A Safe Place

At Morialta Uniting Church we are committed to providing places where people are cared for, nurtured and sustained. We are committed to the care, protection and safety of all people, but especially of children and young people.

We seek to provide a safe environment for all people to encounter God, to grow in faith and to develop relationships as part of the community.

Morialta Uniting Church & Community Centre Vision Statement

Morialta Uniting Church seeks to be an inclusive community that holds to the way of Jesus, expressed through love, service and hospitality. We offer, for all ages, learning opportunities, spiritual expression, action for justice and social connection. We understand the Chapel Street properties to be a community resource.

Online Worship

Our Sunday services are live-streamed for those unable to attend. Please ask if you would like further information.

Pastoral Care

At Morialta, we care for each other through the 'Caring Connections'. We will discuss this with you and arrange for someone to be your pastoral partner if you wish.

Morialta's life and mission are enabled by the Stewardship/Giving of the church family.

Giving may be by one of the following:

- E-Give—direct giving from your bank account (our preferred method—brochures available from office)
- Cash/Cheque in the offering bowl
- Weekly Offering Envelopes
